

Pro-Life Contest Rules

Entries must reflect the general theme of respecting life, and may include thought on abortion, infanticide, euthanasia, and stem cell research.

Essays should be 500 words or less. If you use statistics or quotations in the essay, they must be referenced by the use of footnotes and a bibliography. Entries must be typewritten, double-spaced with pages numbered. Each will include a cover page with the entry form completed. The entrant's name or other identifying info cannot appear elsewhere in the entry.

For more info, call 509-953-3469

By submitting an entry, the contestant and parent agree

* to allow the Cathedral of Our Lady of Lourdes to reprint the winning entry.

* that the creative writing is original, but not copyrighted.

Winners will be announced on Mother's Day. (Information pending.)